467 th 'Uruj - Hazrat Shahul Hameed (QSA)

Is he, then, to whom the evil of his conduct is made alluring, so that he looks upon it as good, (equal to one who is rightly guided)?

For Allah leaves to stray whom He wills, and guides whom He wills.

So let not thy soul go out in (vainly) sighing after them: for Allah knows well all that they do!

Holy Quran Surah 35 Verse 8

"If the son of Adam (the human being) had two valleys of money, he would wish for a third, for nothing can fill the belly of Adam's son except dust, and Allah forgives him who (repents to Him) begs for His pardon."

James answered: O Master, if perchance there shall come a false prophet and lying teacher pretending to instruct us, what ought we to do?

JESUS answered in parable: A man goeth to fish with a net, and therein he catcheth many fishes, but those that are bad he throweth away.

A man went forth to sow, but only the grain that falleth on good ground beareth seed.

Even so ought ye to do, listening to all and receiving only the truth, seeing that the truth alone beareth fruit unto eternal life.

Then answered Andrew: Now how shall the truth be known?

During the later period of his Khilafat, Hadrat Abu Bakr built a house for Baitul Mal, but at no time money or any other thing accumulated in it.
Once somebody asked Abu Bakr to take care of the safety of Baitul Mal, he said that one lock was enough for that because much was not allowed to lie in it.

During his acceptance speech, Sayidina Abu Bakr RA said,

"Truthfulness is synonymous with fulfilling the trust, and lying is tantamount to treachery."

He thus announced that truthfulness has to be the basis of all dealings between a leader and his people.

This needs to be the case if the people are to develop a sense of trust in their leader.

7:5 And the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, "Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with hands defiled?"

(6) And he said to them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, 'This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me;

(7) in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the precepts of men.'

(8) You leave the commandment of God and hold fast the tradition of men."

(9) And he said to them, "You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God, in order to keep your tradition!

Abdullah Istikhri used to go out in the forest with men of hounds.

When a friend asked the reason, he replied: "I want to take rest for a while from the experience (of Oneness)."

Some have occupied themselves with the ideas of One Being and the perception of Unity in multiplicity, so that they may not feel the weight of the experience and have a little rest.

Next comes the one they fear. Next comes the righteous, who are impartial and intolerant of any wrongdoing. In mythology, they are portrayed as the deities of justice who punish anyone who acts against Tao. It explains why they are the ones whom the people fear.

Next comes the one they despise. Then, there are the despicable whom the people despise. They have no qualms about hurting people in the name of Tao to fulfill their selfish desires. People are fearful of them, but the fear is different from the fear people have for the righteous. It is more a fear of detestation than awe.

Baqi Billah Shah [QSA] - Mon 16 Feb 2015 (26 Rabi'ul Akhir 1436)

For man is not chaste.
Revealing below his waist down.
Without his girdle, he leads the lambs to damnation.
